20th Anniversary Show & Celebration:

Old Friends / New Friends

October 2 - 17, 2010

Opening reception:

Saturday, Oct. 2, 7:00 - 10:00pm

(All six featured artists will be in attendance)

Jenkins Showler Gallery invites you to join us for our 20th Anniversary Show & Celebration: we're celebrating two decades of offering exceptional Canadian fine art with a group show featuring six of our outstanding artists: three old friends who have been with JSG since its early days—Ken Kirkby, Peter Shostak, and Ron Hedrick—and three new friends who have joined us recently—Rick Bond, Amanda Jones, and stone sculptor Kathi Bond. Many of our 32 other artists from across Canada are also providing new work for the event, including long-time gallery favourite Rod Charlesworth. Whether you have a long-standing relationship with JSG or are ready to start a new one, this is the show you don't want to miss!

JSG is located in the heart of uptown White Rock, right across from the Playhouse Theatre and just a block south of Semiahmoo Mall at Johnston Road (152nd Street) and 16th Avenue. We are also able to assist you via telephone or e-mail and shipping can be arranged anywhere.

Plenty of free parking is available
